The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Colossians

Friday, September 8, 2006
Chapter 1:8-10

1. Do you exercise great love for others? So much that other people are being told about it? (v8)
2. If you love others you will pray for them? True or False
3. So do you labor in prayer for people in your church? (v9)
4. Do you pray and ask the Lord to give them a complete understanding of what He wants to do in their lives? (v9)
5. Do you pray for them to have spiritual wisdom? (v9)
6. Do you pray these things for yourself? (v9)
7. Does the way you live always honor and please the Lord? Why or why not? If not, then what steps can you take today to change and start in a direction that pleases the Lord?(v10)
8. Do you do good, kind things for others as a result of a genuine love for them? Or do you do good kind things so people will look to you as a good person? (v10)
9. Are you increasing in the knowledge of the Lord? If so, are you applying it to your life? (v10)
10. Has your life changed for the better after being around God's Word and His people? If not, why? (v10)

8 He has told us about the love for others that the Holy Spirit has given you.

9 So we have not stopped praying for you since we first heard about you. We ask God to give you complete knowledge of his will and to give you spiritual wisdom and understanding.

10 Then the way you live will always honor and please the Lord, and your lives will produce every kind of good fruit. All the while, you will grow as you learn to know God better and better.

11 We also pray that you will be strengthened with all his glorious power so you will have all the endurance and patience you need. May you be filled with joy,

12 always thanking the Father. He has enabled you to share in the inheritance that belongs to his people, who live in the light.

13 For he has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of his dear Son,

14 who purchased our freedom and forgave our sins.*
